

American Fisheries Society North Central Division
Rivers and Stream Technical Committee
Annual Spring Meeting
March 23 and 24, 2005
Rock Island Conservation Club
Milan, Illinois

March 23 - Wednesday

1:00 – 2:00

Welcome and call to order (Greg Gelwicks)

Secretary/treasurer's report (Paul Kanehl)

Old business – winter meeting summary. (Greg Gelwicks)

RSTC chapter reports – Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, Mid Canada,
Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Ohio, Ontario, and Wisconsin

New Business

Monitoring Symposium Discussion (Greg Gelwicks and Paul Kanehl)

Chairperson and Secretary nominations and votes (Greg Gelwicks)

Other new business (Open to all)

Presentations

2:00 – 2:20	Marty Melchior	Macroinvertebrate and fish colonization of a newly constructed headwater stream channel
2:20 – 2:45	Marty Melchior	Using engineered logjams to mimic old growth forest stream habitat conditions in WI streams
2:45 – 3:15	Don Roseboom	Aerial stream recon of Illinois TMDL watersheds
3:15 – 3:30	Break
3:30 – 4:30	Doug Clark	Understanding construction activities and impacts on fish and fish habitat

March 24 – Thursday

8:00 – 8:10

Coffee

Symposium Discussion

Chapter Reports

Presentations

8:10 – 8:30	Steve Shroyer	Catchability of flathead catfish by low-frequency electrofishing in the Minnesota River
8:30 – 9:00	Tom Wilton	Stream monitoring and assessment in Iowa
9:00 – 9:30	Mark Ebbers	MN DNR's revised stream survey manual
9:30 – 10:00	Tony Barada	Nebraska statewide stream survey
10:00 – 10:15	Break
10:15 – 10:45	Kristen Hase	Kansas's wadeable stream survey
10:45 – 11:30	Bill White	Restoration efforts in the Waukegan River Framework for rapid assessment of the Illinois River Basin
11:30 – 12:15	Laura Keefer	Geomorphological data collection protocols